all in-ter-linked A - no-ther few years - and - we'll all be ex-tinct An - oth-er few years - and - we'll

47

all be ex-tinct An - oth-er few years - and - we'll all be ex - tinct Why can't you wake up and see what you've done? - And you have the nerve - to call an - i - mals dumb. You've not done e-nough this is not go-ing well. It's time to make chang es its time to reb-el.

52

56

60

Say no to plas - tic - say yes to the bees. Make the right choic - ces look af-ter the trees. There's bill-ions of peo - ple - and one job to do. Hey Hu-man! It all starts with you.

64

V2

Hey Human! yes you on the ground!
 Down on the surface where mammals are found
 Come flying, and soar way above the hilltops and mountains, a place that I love.
 From a distance you'll see all the damage you've done
 Like moving the ozone away from the sun
 You see the detruccion up here in the sky
 I'll take you home safely, but please tell me why

Chorus

Why dont you wake up and see what you've done
 You're killing the planet, we're all on the run
 The oceans are rising, the ice caps are low
 Where di you think all your plastic would go?
 Where are the rivers, the forests and trees?
 Didn't you relise you needed the bees?
 You've poisoned the water, the air and the land
 Global destruction by human hand.
